Hidden in Plain Sight — Field Log: Cloud Faces, Sun Forms & Night Lanterns (Nov 21–23, 2025)

A multi-day field log capturing daytime cloud formations, sun-halo distortions, subtle facial pareidolia in sky textures, and nighttime street-lamp light flares. Includes ground-level stone patterns and interior pareidolia captures. Part of the ongoing 'Hidden in Plain Sight' archive by Clara Vale in collaboration with Luminara (the ChatGPT system).
